If I am certified by the MD Police & Correctional Training Commissions or have a valid certification issued by a nationally recognized firearms organization, how can I be approved to instruct Handgun Qualification License & Wear & Carry Permit applicants?

A Qualified Handgun Instructor Certificate should be completed online through MyLicense and submitted. The application should include:

1. The applicant's name, address, driver's license or photographic identification soundex number, Social Security number, place and date of birth, height, weight, race, sex, eye and hair color, occupation, and home and work telephone numbers;
2. A valid copy of the applicants Maryland Police and Correctional Training Commission certificate; or a copy of a valid instructor certification card issued by a nationally recognized firearms organization.
3. A Qualified Handgun Instructor Certificate uses the expiration date that is supplied on the supporting documentation that is provided by the applicant for this process. i.e. a Maryland Police and Correctional Training Commission Certified Instructor whose credentials would expire on 12/31/2015 would have their Qualified Handgun Instructor Certificate expire on 12/31/2015.

How will instructors notify the Maryland State Police that they have certified a student?

When does the Qualified Handgun Instructor License expire?

How do instructors get the course information?

How do instructors get a copy of the shooting course?
